From the RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

TRIAL
OF
COLONEL A. BURR.

MOTION FOR COMMITMENT.

EXAMINATION OF EVIDENCE.

TUESDAY, September 22.

Jacob Dunbaugh was re examined.

He stated there were two keels and four batteaux; that Mr. Burr had told him between Chickasaw Bluffs and Bayou Pierre, that his first object was to seize Baton Rouge and make that his home until he could collect his forces which he expected would amount to ten or twelve thousand men; he stated that Mr. Bl. told him that governor Folk of Baton Rouge would order the men to take the flints out of their guns, he said that some of them went up the Red river.

Upon being cross examined he stated that he had made a deposition at New Orleans at the request but not the compulsion of general Wilkinson, that he was well acquainted with the construction of batteaux, that they could go up stream and that they were built for that purpose.

Stephen S. Welch.

Q. Were you at the mouth of Cumberland? A. I was; I only joined there. I was there with a load and captain Berry wished me to join and go down the river to make a settlement, for that it was advantageous to young men. I said that I had no incumbrance, and being a single man I was willing to go. Q Who is Berry? A. John Berry, a man I met there.

Mr. Burr. He was called captain of the boat

Witness. He was appointed captain of the boat I went in. I agreed to go down. The proposition made to me by captain Berry was to settle the Quachita country; to have a certain portion of land besides other compensation. Q. What was it? A. Captain Berry offered me ten dollars a month, but I said I was not for hire and would go as a volunteer. Q. Did you descend the river with him? A. Yes. Q. Do you recollect hearing any conversation from Mr. Burr to Mr. Floyd, on the subject of arms? A. I do not. Did you go to Bayou Pierre? A. Yes, and to Natchez. Q. What became of Mr. Bl.? A. I think that he went to Natchez with us. I think that the boat with his family on board was struck on the point of an island above Natchez, and that I assisted to get her off. I did not see Mr. Bl. there, but I was told he went to Natchez.

On being further interrogated the witness deposed that he was on the piece of ground cleared for exercising; that he was stationed there with sixteen or seventeen others as a guard to watch the boats about two hundred yards from it; that the boats were then on the west side of the Mississippi; that he understood as the the reason of this arrangement, that the militia were expected to come and carry the boats to Cole's Creek; that the orders of the guard were to let no one pass to the boats without giving the countersign 'look sharp' and to fire if any one attempted to pass, not with a view of hitting them, but to alarm the boats; that a Mr. Noland from Berry's boat gave the orders, but he knows not who gave them to him; No. land was some times styled lieutenant and some times ensign; that centinels were placed out who were relieved every two hours through the night till day light, the guard were not. Q. Were you ever better informed about the object of the expedition?

The Witness said he had not been from those who had any authority, or who he supposed were better informed than himself; there was a talk among the men that they were going to take Baton Rouge. Q. Why did your impressions change? A. The witness said that he did not know who was the first person that started such a conversation, but that he had first heared it from two or three or more who were talking in the bow of the boat, that he came forward and heared it, that it was further said they were going to drag the men to Florida. Some of them were very much scared at the time. He further said that there were somewhere about one hundred men at the mouth of Cumberland; that they had no agricultural tools, no ploughs, hoes, or harrows, except edged tools to fell timber; that the search made by captain Fitzpatrick was at Bayou below Bayou Pierre; that being only in one boat when it was searched, he does not know whether the search was a fair one; that he never saw, but did hear that arms had been sunk and concealed; that he saw not heard of the stopping of a leak produced by two auger holes and ropes in the back part of the gunwale in the cabin occupied by Mr. Burr, for that Mr. Pryor being unable to stop the leak, he had called him and he had stopped it.

Cross Examined.

Mr. Burr. Did you know Dean's boat? A. It sailed with us in company from the mouth of Cumberland; but I do not certainly know whether it was connected with us. Q. What became of Boyce's boat?—A. It went down to Natchez.

Mr. Wirt Who dismissed you from the party? A. When the boats were stopped and the eruption took place, I went down to Natchez. Mr. Wirt. When col. B. left the party was there any ceremony at parting? any speech? A. He did speak to them. He said he would have to leave them them until he could see them again. I think he said his property was to be distributed among them. Q. Was any thing said about wages; about the means of paying them? A. I don't recollect.

Mr. Burr. How did you come round from New Orleans? A. I came with general Wilkinson. Q. Were you subpœnaed? A. I was. Q. Had you any communication with general Wilkinson? A. Not till after I had received the subpœna. Q. Did you receive any money there? any from general Wilkinson? A. Yes, I received ten dollars from general Wilkinson to help bear my expences as a witness.—— Did you give any deposition there? A. None; but some statement of my evidence, taken down by general Wilkinson; but I did not give my qualification to it.

William Love called in again.

Mr. Hay. When did you separate from the party? A. At Bayou Pierre. Mr. H. State the circumstances that induced you to leave them.

Witness. The boat was going down to Natchez, and I went down in it. Q. What boat? A. The boat with two horses in it.

Mr. Wirt. Did you go in Boyce's boat to Natchez? A. Yes.

Mr. Hay. Did you go in consequence of any direction from Mr. Blannerhasset? A. I did not. Q. Why did you leave them? A. I was not in the party, and I thought I might as well leave them. Q. Was there no particular circumstance as to Mr. Blannerhassett, which induced you to do it. A Yes. When I was in the boat Mr. Blannerhassett ordered me out, for he wanted to speak to the men in my absence. I was not pleased at this; as I thought my life as sweet as the rest of them. Capt. Elliott, however, came and told me I might join as a volunteer, and gave me a musket. I went over to the party, but finding that I could no keep as high as the rest of them, I got discontented, and was determined to go to Natchez. Q. In what boat did you see the chest of arms? A. In major Floyd's boat.

Mr. Wirt. Do you know any thing of the guard? A. I was not there at that time.

Mr. Hay. In what boat were the other chests? A. I do not say they were arms; but I saw some boxes on board of captain Dean's boat

Mr. Wirt. Did you say you had no other reason for quitting, but because you could not keep up appearances? A. None.

Cross Examined.

Mr. Burr. Who brought you round here from New Orleans? A. Gen. Wilkinson. I was introduced to him by serjeant Dunbaugh before I was subpœnaed. Every one of the party whom he could find was carried to the general. Q. Did gen. W. ask you any questions? A. He asked some. Q. Was this before or after you were subpœnaed? A Before. Q Did you receive any money? A I received about 20 dollars from the military agent after I was subpœnaed: Since I came here I have refunded it to the marshal.

Samuel Moxley.

Mr. Wirt. Were you with this party? A. I was. Q. Where did you join them? A. At the Falls of Ohio. Q. Were you at the mouth of Cumberland? A. I was. Q In whose boat did you descend the river? A. In captain Berry's boat; which was built at the Falls of Ohio, and there joined the party. Major Floyd's boat also joined them there; besides a small batteaux, which was not loaded with provisions as the other two were. Q. Did you not proceed down the river with the boats which came from Blannerhassett's island? A. Yes; we were sometimes in company with them. Q How many men were at the mouth of Cumberland? A. I suppose not more than 100. Did you see these men introduced to col. Burr? A. I did not. Q. Nor heard his speech? A. I heard nothing about it till I got to Orleans. Q. Did you conceive that you belonged to this party? A, I did. Q. With whom did you make an engagement? A. With Mr. Berry of Indiana, 12 miles from Jeffersonville. Q. What was the nature of that engagement? A. To descend the Ohio and Mississippi and to ascend the Red river, to settle the Ouachita lands. I was not certain whether these lands belonged to col. Burr or Mr. Lynch; but I supposed the latter. It was also stated, that should our frontiers be invaded by the Spaniards, we were to render every assistance in our power to resist them. Q. How many arms were in your boat? A. About 8 or 9. Q. How many men? A. About 10. Q. Were you at the Bayou, below Bayou Pierre? A. I was. Q. Did any thing of consequence occur there? A. I do not know what you may deem important. Q. Were there any guards stationed there? A. There were, and for this purpose: the militia were said to be crossing the river above us in rafts and the guard were to give the alarm. Q. Was any ground cleared to exercise men? A. There was ground cleared, but I do not know for what purpose. Q. How large a slip? A. About half an acre. Q. To what purpose was it applied? A. I know not; but the guard were stationed there. Q. Was it that the guard might stay there? A. I do not know; but when it was cleared, I did not see the necessity of clearing it. Q. What instructions were given to the guard? A. I heard only from others; that if any one approached, they were to fire 2 guns, and then the guard was to go off in a small boat. Q Did you think that the object of this enterprise was to settle lands?

Mr. Burr objected to such inquiries. How could the mere opinions of a witness have any influence in a court of Justice? Might not these opinions be formed upon idle rumors. The same means of deception were used in Kentucky; but they were not so easily duped as the gentleman represents the Virginians to have been. C. Just. Let the question be proposed in this form: Did you see any thing in the party itself, which induced you to think that there was a different object? A. I did not, before the arrival of the militia, when I began to entertain doubts of the object.

Mr. Wirt. Was there any part of your engagement about a service of 6 months? A. We were engaged for 6 months.

Mr. M'Rae. What service? A. I am not certain. We were to stay there to settle land; and it was supposed the settlement would be made in that time. Q. What consideration were you to receive? A. ten dollars a month and one hundred acres of land.

Mr. Wirt. Had you any manuel exercise as you went down? A. We had on the roof of the boat 2 or 3 times. Q. The boats were roofed. A. Yes, they were flat on the top; the exercise was of our own accord.

Mr. Hay. Did you see the same operation in other boats? A. I did not.

Mr. Wirt. Did you see any thing of the search made by col. Fitzpatrick? A. I was there, it happened at Thompson's Bayou. Q. Did Fitzpatrick see all the arms? A. The musquets were taken from our boat before col. F. made the search. Q. To what boat were they carried? A. I know not, but they were taken out of ours. Q. Do you know any thing about burying or concealing the arms? A. I do not. Q. Do you know any thing of holes bored in the gun wales of col. Burr's boat? A. I do not. Q. You were in your own boat I suppose? A. I was. We were at too great a distance from them to have seen any such occurrence. Q. Do you know any thing of it from public conversation among the men? A. I understood that the arms had been concealed. I heard it talked of in the company of the men by different persons, that they were tied to a sawyer,* also that they were taken up by the Bayou and buried; and that they were concealed under col. B's boat.

No Cross Examination.

CHANDLER LINDSLEY.

Q. Where did you begin with your voyage? A. I descended the river from Pittsburg with Mr. Ellis. Q. What was the object of the voyage? A. Mr. Ellis called it a trading voyage.——Q. Did you join the party at the mouth of Cumberland? A. I did. Q. What do you suppose was the force at the mouth of Cumberland? A. I should suppose there were about seventy or eighty men. The circle to which col. B. was introduced, consisted of 30 or 40; and I should suppose, they composed about half of the whole. Q. Did you stop at Cincinnati? A. I did. Q Did you receive any information of the party there? A. I heard that Col. Burr had been there a day or two before; and had excited some consternation among the people there. Q. Did you stop at the Falls of the Ohio? A. The water was low; and occasioned us to remain there two or three days. Q. Was any of the party there? A. Mr. Kibby was there, engaging men to settle the Ouachita land. Q. Do you recollect his christian name? A. I do not. Q. On what terms did he wish to engage? A. Mr. Kibby stated to us the articles of agreement. They were nearly the same as those which Mr. Moxley has described. Q. Were there any signatures to the articles? A. There were about ten or twelve. Q. What were the terms? A. It obligated them to go down the Ohio & Mississippi & ascend the Red river to the mouth of Black River and those waters up to the Ouachita river; and it was answered, that if the frontier was invaded they were to resist. Q. Did you descend the Mississippi? A I went to Natchez with Major Floyd and Ralston and about 15 others in a keel boat purchased by col. Burr from Mr. Ellis. Q. What was in the boat? A Barron, hoes, mattocks and a few barrels of apples. Q. Do you know where the bar-iron and other things were obtained? A. Yes they were purchased by col B. of Mr. Ellis at the mouth of Cumberland.

Mr Wirt. Was Mr. Ellis's being there accidental? A. At the time Mr. Ellis was at the Falls, Maj Floyd talked of making a contract with Mr Ellis for these articles: he did not however buy them; but told Mr. Ellis that he would see col Burr on the river, and he was confident that the colonel would purchase the whole Q Where were these articles from? A. From Pittsburg. Mr Wirt. My object is to ascertain, sir, whether Burr's meeting with Ellis was in consequence of any previous arrangement between them, or the mere effect of accident. Can you inform me on the point? Was Mr. Ellis's voyage preconcerted with col. Burr? A. Mr. Ellis, Sir, was on a general trading voyage.

Mr. Hay. How many of those articles were there? A. I know not. Mr. Ellis has, I believe, an inventory of them; and he is here.

Mr. Wirt. Was Mr. Blannerhassett at the mouth of Cumberland, when the tools were purchased? A. He was? Q. Was any proposition made to you to join the party? A. There was. Q. Who made it? A. Colonel Tyler asked me. I told him, that if there was nothing hostile in their views and there was a prospect of gain, I would join. He said, if there was any thing hostile, he would be as far from it as any man. Mr. Wirt. Did you not join? A. I did. I had a right to withdraw whenever I pleased. The greater part of colonel Tyler's men were, I think, on the same terms.

Mr. Hay. Why did you make that reservation? A. From the reports that were then in circulation.

Mr. Wirt. What were the terms? A. I joined on the same terms as the other young men who were with him. Colonel Tyler told me, he was going to settle Ouachita land: and those who went on first, were at liberty to purchase land.

Mr. Hay. For what time did you engage? A I was at liberty to leave them, whenever I pleased.

Mr. Wirt. Did you hear any observations from colonel Burr at the mouth of Cumberland? A. Only a few words. He said, that he had intended to have communicated his designs at that place; but that certain reasons prevented him. I understood him to say, that colonel Tyler, major Smith and Floyd, would make those reasons known to us. Mr. Wirt. Do you know any thing of the transactions at Thompson's Bayou? A. I was not there.

No cross examination.

NOTE.* A Sawyer is the log of a tree or a whole tree fixed to one end in the bottom of the Mississippi and plays up and down with the current like a man who is sawing timber.

BY THIS DAY's MAIL.

NEW-YORK, October 2

The ship Delaware, captain Thomson, arrived at this port yesterday in the very short passage of 35 days from Amsterdam, having performed her voyage in 81. Captain T. has favored the editor of the Mercantile Advertiser with Dutch papers to the 25th of August; and informs us verbally that a declaration of war against Great Britain has been issued by the court of Denmark, a copy of which reached Amsterdam previous to his sailing; and that the Danish consul in consequence of orders from Count Bernstoff of the 10th of August, had stopped the sailing of all Danish vessels from Rotterdam, Amsterdam, Helvoet and Brielle.

We learn from the papers,

That all British property has been confiscated at Copenhagen and Altona. The king of Denmark had retired from Copenhagen to Colding in Jutland.

That the Crown Prince to organize the army had returned to Kiel; from whence Mr. Jackson the English envoy, had proceeded on board the British fleet in the Danish seas, for the purpose of communicating to admiral Gambier the result of his embassy. He was detained by contrary winds from the 8th to the 11th, so that the Danes gained three days to make preparations for defence.

COMMUNICATION.

By the arrival of vessels in this port, which have suffered severely at sea, we have received the unpleasant accounts of a dreadful hurricane on the 25th and 26th of last month; and, as far as we have yet obtained information, it appears to have extended through nearly 10 degrees of latitude, from 28 to 32, 40, and 8 1 2 degrees of longitude, from 64 to 72, 30. The extent of its ravages may have been greater than we have yet heard; it may have swept through those West India Islands which lie in the same latitude. As it has been reported, that a dismasted ship from London bound for this port, has been spoken and others in equal distress may be off the coast, would it not be well to send out a vessel with spars provisions &c. to relieve such as may stand in need of assistance? Some may be saved from much painful distress, if not from total destruction.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 5.

TRIAL OF COL. BURR.

Latest Proceedings.

The court have been occupied, since our last, by the examination of evidence. On Saturday Gen. EATON was introduced to complete his testimony, by detailing the communications of the accused respecting a central revolution. He was followed by Gen. JAMES WILKINSON, whose narrative occupied about 2 hours. The court adjourned before his cross-examination was completed.

On Monday Mr. Burr was too indisposed to attend the capitol and the court was adjourned to the next day.

On Tuesday the cross-examination of gen. Wilkinson proceeded, but was not completed. The court adjourned at an early hour, to give counsel an opportunity of attending the Chancery Court.

Our readers must be patient. We can not break the chain evidence, to introduce any one witness on the stage whose testimony is deemed more important than the rest. They shall see the whole of it; and in such large portions at a time, as will soon exhaust it.

(Richmond Enquirer, Sept. 30)

Captain Warland, arrived at Boston, in 9 days from Halifax, informs, "That the British August Packet had arrived at that place; that the Jason had returned from New-York, with 50 of her crew in irons; that the Bellona, captain Hardy, had sailed for the Chesapeake; and that a temporary embargo was to be laid, the day after he came away, on account of the sailing of some transports with troops on board supposed for Quebec.

Capt. Warland also states, "That the 2 men taken from the Chesapeake frigate with Ratford, had been tried, and were found guilty of mutiny and desertion; but that the punishment of death had been mitigated, by being sentenced to receive 500 lashes each. This sentence was however, fully remitted, the day before he sailed."

We are informed that the English China fleet have sailed for England with only a small part of their cargoes; not having been able to settle the controversy which arose respecting the death of a Chinese.

Phil paper.

The mayor of the city of New York has issued a proclamation interdicting the intercourse between that city and Charleston in consequence of the prevalence of the yellow fever in the latter place.

Died at Philadelphia on Friday morning, (October the 2d) general Peter Muhlenberg, late collector of that port.

Extract of a letter from an eminen merchant, dated

"LONDON, Aug. 12.

"We have had many meetings of the manufacturers and merchants since the unfortunate affair of the Chesapeake, with the hope of contributing to restore that commercial intercourse under which both countries have flourished for several years past: But, my friend, as we have a difficult task to manage with the administration and shipholders of our country against us in so many particulars, we are astonished that you are so negligent and so awkward in the management on your side the water, for between two rival countries every thing is done by good management: you cannot be ignorant that a great weight in the opposite scale is necessary to counteract the continual eye-sore in the emigration and desertion of above 10,000 persons annually to your country. Now, methinks, you ought to continue and increase the number of links in the chain of our mutual interest in order to prevent our brooding over the losses we sustain. The plan of your funded debt occasioned many of our principal officers to embark their money in your funds. Mr. Baring says there were eight admirals stockholders in your 5 1-4 and 4 1-2 per cent. stocks, whose good behavior was secured by this connection with your funds; then why do you wish to dissolve a charm so powerful and yet so cheap? Where are the eyes and ears of your calculators? Is there no use for money in your country, that you are in such a hurry to return it to Europe, when you paid about 4 1-2 per cent. interest for it? Is it, can it be better to destroy all the interesting links between us, and fight our navies, than civilly to borrow our money of us to subscribe to your banks, turnpikes, and canals, in your infant country, that would increase your population and raise the value of the public lands for the final redemption of the public loans, after all these beneficial plans were effected, to an immense profit. Think of these things, my friend, and that if you would only keep a few sail of men of war cruizing on your own coast, to prevent the capture of your vessels direct from England, by which the loss by insurance would fall on us; our ships would not trouble your harbors. In short, my friend, your government must shew a little little more attention to natural and sound policy before you can hope to keep at peace: make it more instead of less for the interest of Great Britain to forget her jealousies, and all will be well; but if you go on weakening our friendly chains, you leave us nothing to prevent the quarrels we wish to avoid."

IMPORTANT REPORT.—The committee who were appointed to take into consideration the state of the West India colonies, have reported to the British house of commons, the small profit the planters receive on their sugar and rum; the low price of which they ascribe to the facility of intercourse between the hostile colonies and Europe, under the American flag, by means of which, they say, not only the whole of their produce is carried to a market, but at charges little exceeding those of peace; while the British planter is burthened with all the inconvenience, risk and expense resulting from a state of war. In order to counterbalance, in some degree, the advantages enjoyed by the hostile colonies, and afford relief to the British export trade, the committee recommended a strict blockade of the ports of the enemy's settlements. Also "the enforcement of those restrictions on the trade between neutrals and the enemy's colonies, which were formerly obtained by Great Britain." As it may be apprehended, that from the adoption of such measures, difficulties might arise in that intercourse from which the West Indies at present derive a considerable proportion of some of their supplies, the committee suggested, that supplies of lumber, flour and fish could be supplied from Canada and Nova Scotia, and the deficiencies in other articles of salt provisions, might be made up by supplies from Europe.

If the above report be adopted by the British government, need we say, that it will have an alarming effect upon the commerce of the U. S.

[Phil. Gazette.]

AMERICAN AFFAIRS.—The British papers had, in a great measure, ceased their observations on the controversy between the U. S. and Great Britain, on the subject of the Chesapeake affair. They waited the arrival of expected dispatches to our ministers. There were some, however, who considered a war as very probable; and that preparations ought to be made to wage it. On the subject of the treaty points, it was contended, in the ministerial papers, that Great Britain would readily concede the point, that national ships should be exempted from all search; and that a modification of the right to search merchant ships might be acceded: but the general right of a belligerent to search neutral merchant ships for deserters, as well as contraband goods, was one of which they never would surrender; and that if the American ministers were instructed to leave England, unless this right was relinquished, they must leave England. On this head all parties appeared to be united. The celebrated Mr. Sheridan, whose partiality for the U. S. has been avowed in a speech in the house of commons on the thirteenth of August, said, "When I look to the U. S. I see a most disagreeable prospect; although I have no hesitation in saying, we must never give up those rights which have made us a great maritime nation." Sir Thomas Turton, another member of parliament, in a note in the "Oracle," of August 10, 1807, with his signature, says, "I certainly did say, in the house of commons, that it was disgraceful and humiliating to this country, while the non importation act existed, that his majesty's late ministers should have condescended to treat with America, let the terms be ever so advantageous. And I still think if our divisions cease and the unanimous energies of the country are called into action, and properly directed, we are equal to a war with the whole world if such (which God forbid) should be our fate."

In COMMON COUNCIL,
2d October, 1807.

Ordered, That the collector proceed in the collection of the taxes for 1807, as soon as he has given bond for the same to the satisfaction of the Mayor.

Ordered, That the street commissioner do proceed to regulate the foot way on the West side of St. Asaph street, between King and Prince street.

RAN AWAY, some time in the months of November or Dec. last, a negro man by the name of SAM, who was hired in the town of Alexandria to a Mr. Robert Smith. He was about 30 years of age, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, very straight, of rather a yellowish or tanny complexion, stutters a little, has a soft voice and generally seems humble and timid when spoken to. He had a wife at col. Jemmeson's in the county of Caroline, and may perhaps be lurking in that neighborhood, but I think it more probable he may have gone to the state of Maryland. If taken in the state of Virginia and brought to me I will give the above reward; if in the state of Maryland and brought to me I will give 30 dollas reward.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber being desirous of procuring some good lands in the south-western country, and to enable him to do so, offers the following Property for sale, viz.
A Tract of Land, situate in the county of Fairfax and state of Virginia, where-on I now reside, containing upwards of 2 100 acres. This land is well adapted to farming, is level, well watered and timbered, full one-half being in wood, near the center of which stands the county court-house and other public buildings, which are included within the bounds of a town lately laid out at this place, authorised by an act of the general assembly of Virginia, to several of which lots buildings have been erecned, &c. On one acre thereof, near the coturt-house, is a large two-story brick house rented and occupied as a tavern, together with large stables, kitchen, and house for the retirement of a family, &c. Perhaps there is no situation between the eastern and western waters more public, or that afford better stanes for taverns, stores, mechanics, &c. Particularly to an inn-keeper calculated to act on a large scale. The Little River turnpike paved road, leading from Alexandria, to the westward, passes, immediately at this place, as also the main public and post roads, leading to and from Alexandria, George-Town, the City of Washington, Baltimore, and the western country—distance from Alexandria, 14, and from the City of Washington 15 or 16 miles. To accommodate a purchaser or purchasers, I would dispose of the property at this place, or any part thereof, separate from the other lands—the annual rent of the small part now improved, is near eight hundred dollars, and at little additional expence would produce from one thousand dollars to twelve hundred dollars per annum, exclusive of lots that might be sold, or rented on ground-rent, and I would divide the land in two or three parts to suit purchasers. On that part occupied by myself are a comfortable dwelling-house sufficient for the accommodation of a large family, with barn, stables, and other convenient out-houses, orchards, &c.—As it is presumed a person disposed to purchase would first view the premises, a further description is thought unnecessary.
A small piece of Land within one and a half miles of the court-house, situate on Accotink Run, containing 19 acres, mostly rich and valuable grass land, which affords a tolerable mill seat, and was purchased with a view of erecting one thereon, the timber for which [of excellent quality] hath been cut and squared.
A Lot in the town of Alexandria, with a two story brick house, kitchen and stable thereon, situate near the center thereof—and
About 1600 acres of Land, situate on the waters of Licking, in the county of Bourbon, and state of Kentucky. This land is classed as second rate, is rich, lies well, and by judges of that county said to be worth from five dollars to eight dollars per acre, and on which are several small settlements.
For the property in Fairfax and Alexandria, indisputable titles will be made, the title to the Kentucky land is thought to be good, an investigation on that subject having lately taken place, and is patented in my own name. Nothing short of a strong desire to provide for a large and growing family, should induce me to offer this property for sale. My terms will be such as cannot fail to accommodate a purchaser, as but a small proportion will be required in hand, and on securing the payments of the balances satisfactorily, to meet arrangements which in such cases I wish to make, lengthy credits will be given. I would receive in part payment good lands in the state of Tennessee, not more than thirty miles from Nashville, or on the waters of Duck-River in said state: but the title thereto must be well established and secured. Application must be made to
